

TOXIC INHALATION

Indications

- Respiratory distress caused by inhalation of toxic gases
- Symptoms may include headache, malaise, dizziness, nausea/vomiting, seizures, hypotension, coma; may be associated with cherry-red color of mucous membranes (late sign)
- Consider carbon monoxide (CO) poisoning or cyanide poisoning with any patient exposed to products of combustion toxic gases in an enclosed area

